

"No for radicalism!"

- training course on tools and methods within local youth workshops and European youth exchanges in order to prevent radicalisation of young people and use cultural diversity and a positive tool of non-formal education

28 June - 07 July 2018, Arrouquelas, Rio Major, Portugal

Themes of the training course:

Cultural diversity can be used as a positive and powerful tool within local youth work activities and European youth exchanges by active participation of young people. To build tolerance towards cultural diversity and find common European roots throughout the active participation of young people can be a great step towards prevent radicalisation of young people.

The overall aim of the training course is to train youth workers, youth leaders to be capable for preparing, implementing, and evaluating workshops on cultural diversity in local level and within youth exchanges as part of preventing radicalisation of young people. To raise awareness on cultural diversity and to develop competences for using cultural diversity as a positive and powerful tool within local and European youth work. To understand and develop different ways of active participation of young people within cultural diversity projects.

Learning objectives of the training course are:

- To raise understanding in human rights educational approaches mainly in connection with cultural diversity;
- To develop an understanding about aspects of active youth participation and critical way of thinking with elements and methods of non formal education;
- To be aware of importance of cultural diversity in local, regional and international level and to develop skills and attitudes to motivate and actively involve young people in human rights youth projects as preventing radicalisation of young people;
- To develop the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes to prepare, run and evaluate a cultural diversity workshop locally and within youth exchanges;
- To offer the opportunity to meet partner groups and develop concrete ideas for future projects focusing on cultural diversity and active participation of young people in order to prevent radicalisation of young people.

The methodology of the training course:

The course is designed as an open learning process based on participants' experience and exchange. The training course will follow the non-formal education approach. A combination of the different creative and interactive methods will be used by the international trainers' team and designed upon the profile of participants. The learning of new skills, the acquisition of knowledge and the exchange and challenge of each other's attitude and experience are very important for this training course. The entire course is designed as a mutual learning process in which, using diverse methods, participants can compare their approaches and experiences with youth work and Erasmus+ programme. Trainers will establish a theoretical framework and common reference points for learning and communication in this course, and they will also provide a framework where participants will be able to exchange their experiences and to develop new ideas. The course methodology foresees direct involvement of the youth and youth work organisations that will be present at the training course. The course programme and contents are organised to allow for the maximum participation of the group using active and participatory methods.

Theoretical part of the training course:

- To explore the meaning and understanding of culture, cultural identity, cultural diversity, stereotypes, prejudice and discrimination;
- To find the link between culture and radicalism based on exclusion and xenophobia;
- To get to know the proposal of Council of Europe regarding to Preventing the radicalisation of children and young people by fighting the root causes;
- To explore the suggestions and actions made by European Commission for Tackling radicalisation through education and youth action;
- To explore Examples for preventing radicalism by European Institute of Piece;
- To explore non-formal educational methods and tools for preventing radicalisation of young people;
- To explore cultural diversity as a positive tool for tolerance and acceptance within development of intercultural sensitiveness;
- To refresh knowledge on youth exchanges according to the proposals of Erasmus+ programme.

Practical parts of the training course:

- To prepare, run and evaluate workshops on cultural diversity so called No radicalism in local level and within European youth exchanges;
- To initiate youth exchanges prevent radicalisation of young people as future cooperation among project partners.

Who can participate in the training course:

- Being older than 18 years old and there is no upper age limit;
- Youth workers, directly working with young people, having experience of organising at least one youth exchange project;
- Youth leaders, having experience of organising (not just participating) at least one local and international youth project;
- Motivated to integrated human rights education in daily youth work mainly emphasis on cultural diversity and preventing radicalisation of young people;
- Ready to take part in the whole training course;
- Have organizational support for further activities with young people;
- Be able to communicate English.

Erasmus+

Hours	Arrival day 28/06/2018	Day 1 Day of exploring 29/06/2018	Day 2 Day of team building 30/06/2018	Day 3 Day of Cultural diversity in theory 01/07/2018	Day 4 Day of Cultural diversity in action 02/07/2018	Day 5 Day of Prevent radicalism 03/07/2018	Day 6 Day of No Radicalism workshops I. 04/07/2018	Day 7 Day of No Radicalism workshops II. 05/07/2018	Day8 Day of Partnership 06/07/2018	Departure day 07/07/2018
7.00 – 09.00	Arrival of participants Registration and accommodation	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast	breakfast
09.30– 11.00		Official opening of the TC Introduction games Ice breakers Getting to know each other	Exploring the training venue and the host town Team building	Understanding culture What is cultural diversity? What is my cultural identity?	Non formal education How cultural diversity can be used as a positive and powerful tool?	Examples for preventing radicalism by Council of Europe, European Commission and European Institute of Piece	How should we give feedback? What is cultural diversity workshop for preventing radicalisation? Selecting topics to be developed in teams	Intro of the day Running 1 h. workshops prepared by teams with the feedback sessions 1 st workshop Coffee break 2 nd workshop	Projects proposals for the common cooperation in the future including personal and group action planning: Planning group communication Departure of participants
11.00– 11.30
11.30– 13.00
13.00– 15.00		Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch		Lunch
15.00- 16.30		Aim and objectives of the TC Personal and professional learning needs as Youthpass intro Cooperation agreement	E+ Youth in Action hunting	Stereotypes and prejudices	Link between cultural diversity and active participation of young people	Free afternoon with treasure hunting by local young people	Developing the No radicalism workshops in teams. Consultations	3 rd workshop		Finalise Youthpass learning process
16.30- 17.00				Coffee break				Coffee break
17.00– 19.00				Prejudgment and reality Exclusion – Inclusion				4 th workshop		Evaluation of the TC
19.30- 20.30	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner out	Dinner	Dinner		Dinner
21.00-	Welcome evening	Intercultural evening	Social & informal evening	NGO Cookery show	Evening with minority groups	Roma evening	Working evening	Youthpass cafeteria and flower shop	Farewell evening

Financial conditions:

The food and accommodation will be provided and paid by the organizers. Travels costs will be reimbursed by bank transfer after the course. It may be that money from European Commission will be late (be ready for that). The reimbursement fee will be counted according to the distance calculator of European Commission:

IMPORTANT: This training has no fee.

The travel reimbursement will be counted according to the distance calculator of European Commission: