The main objective of the project: to improve the level of key competences and skills of young people in the field of youth involvement in public life, including those with fewer opportunities, as well as to promote participation in democratic life in Europe.

The main activity of the project is an 8 days exchange programme organized in Satu Mare \(arrival on September 3, 2016 afternoon and departure on September 10, 2016\), Romania with the purpose of offering young people good examples, tools to increase the participation of young people in the democratic life in Europe, and the opportunity to reflect on best opportunities to have a say in public life. The program will include formal and non-formal learning sessions, on site visits to public authorities and NGOs, followed by debates, role plays, reflections.

Participants:

4 young people (age 18-30) and 1 group leader per each partner (no age limit)

The partners shall strongly encourage the participation of young people from disadvantaged groups, especially from rural areas and minority groups, which have less opportunities to express themselves and become involved in public life, but which have proved in the past the desire to become active in students' councils, youth organizations. Each participating organization shall be responsible for the selection of the participants based on the condition that they pay attention to the above selection criteria. The selection criteria shall take into account: the youth educational and extra-curricular experience, family income level, social problems (raised by single parents, numerous brothers etc.), ethnic/cultural, background. The partner organization shall pay a specific attention when selecting their participants to the sex ratio balance. In this sense, we expect that an equal number of boys and girls shall take part in the exchange.

All participants are expected to be able to understand and speak in English.

By the end of the project, each participant shall be able to fill in its own Youthpass Certificate. It is strongly recommended for the group leader to be employee of the partner organization and/or to already have experience in this field and acted as supervisor in other international projects.

Travel

Each participant organization shall be responsible for choosing the best travel solution in terms of money and time spent. The travel costs for all the participation shall be reimbursed according to the travel distance:
