INTERNATIONAL YOUTH EXCHANGE

19th October – 30th November, 2018

Torre del Greco, Naples – Italy

-Background and context:

Torre del Greco will be the background to our project. Through the manual laboratories (held by the teachers of the Agricultural University of Portici (UniNA), the participants will be able approach to social entrepreneurship and sustainable Agricultural, exploring their potential and implementing in practice what they have learned through. the development and launch of a non-profit crowdfunding campaign.

-Aims:

social and sustainable entrepreneurship has all the requisites to help young people who are unemployed. The project aims to provide curiosity and awareness towards this, giving inspiration concrete to turn ideas into a work of an entrepreneurial nature. The idea of carrying out actions independently instills self-esteem and confidence towards one's own abilities, encouraging the participants to take a positive attitude, fundamental to change one's state of unemployed.

Through the crowdfunding campaign, we can discover the peculiarities of all the countries involved, going to translate the lessons learned during the activities towards them and impacting significant way on the partner associations, which can apply, in the sensitive contexts in which they operate (the school, the youth communities, the contexts at risk of social exclusion as that of migrants and Roma, etc.) the good practices learned during the project and create a dense network with local communities.
