

Motivating Young people to Think At Labour market and Employability through Non-formal Techniques

YOUTH EXCHANGE

23rd of August – 31st of August 2016
Montecchio Maggiore (VI)
Italy

Description of the project:

The project aims to develop a melting pot of experiences, useful for foreign and local people, creating an equipment of suggestions about how to help young people to insert themselves in the scenario of “work possibilities”, nowadays.

During the Youth Exchange, participants will carry out a work program designed and prepared by them before the project, among the topic “Which could be my future job? How can I discover what suits me?”

The core of the project can be well summarized by these questions:

- Did you start thinking of which could be your future job?
- Do you want to discover your natural talent and how to exploit them for your career?
- Do you want to know the meaning of hard and soft skills and to be aware of how to handle them while building your future?
- Do you think that non formal education and non forma methods can be useful to prepare yourself for your future working life?
- Do you like to test these non formal activities?

The final achievement of the project will be a Video, containing a description of which are the best suggestion in the field “Young people and new Job”.
